“My future is in Your hands . . .”

Psalm 31:15

Learning to 'wait well.'

In her great book, When God, When? Joyce Meyer says, “God has taught me to keep living the life I now have, while I am waiting for the things that are in my heart to come to pass. We can become so intent on trying to birth the next thing that we neither enjoy nor take care of the things at hand. I had a vision from God 10 years before I began to see it fulfilled. During those years, I believe I missed a lot of joy trying to give birth outside of God’s timing. Learn to enjoy where you are, while you’re waiting to get to where you want to be.”

You’ll spend more time waiting than you will receiving. And when you receive what you’re waiting for now - you’ll begin waiting for something else. That’s life! If you don’t learn to ‘wait well’, you’ll live with endless frustration. Waiting well is what will deliver your dream. Listen, “. . . in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.” (Gal 6:9) “Due season” is when God knows you’re ready, not when you think you are. He has set appointments to accomplish certain things in your life, so you might as well settle down and wait patiently, because that’s when it will happen - and not before. God knows what you need, He knows when you need it and He knows how to get it to you. All He asks you to do is trust Him.

“Waiting well”

Jeremiah 29:11-14 (NIV)

<sup>11</sup> For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.

Jeremiah 29:11-14 (NIV)

12 Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you.

13 You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart.

14 I will be found by you...”

Proverbs 3:5+6 (NKJV)

5 Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding;

6 In all your ways acknowledge Him,
And He shall direct your paths.
