

If there is a purpose in life at all, there must be a purpose in suffering and in dying. But no man can tell another what this purpose is. Each must find out for himself, and must accept the responsibility that his answer prescribes. If he succeeds he will continue to grow in spite of all indignities.

ROMANS 5:3-4

A hand is pouring a vibrant red liquid from a clear glass pitcher into a heart-shaped container. The liquid is captured mid-pour, creating a dynamic splash and bubbles within the heart. The background is a soft, light red gradient, emphasizing the central action. The overall image conveys a sense of divine love being poured into a human heart.

God's love has been poured
