Psalm 65:5-13

You answer us with awesome and righteous deeds,
God our Saviour, the hope of all the ends of the earth
and of the farthest seas, who formed the mountains
by your power, having armed yourself with strength, who stilled the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves, and the turmoil of the nations. The whole earth is filled with awe at your wonders;
where morning dawns, where evening fades, you call forth songs of joy. You care for the land and water it;
you enrich it abundantly. The streams of God are filled with water to provide the people with corn, for so you have ordained it. You drench its furrows and level its ridges; you soften it with showers and bless its crops.

You crown the year with your bounty, and your carts overflow with abundance. The grasslands of the wilderness overflow; the hills are clothed with gladness. The meadows are covered with flocks and the valleys are mantled with corn; they shout for joy and sing.

Isaiah 40:25-26

‘To whom will you compare me?

Or who is my equal?’ says the Holy One.

Lift up your eyes and look to the heavens:
who created all these?

He who brings out the starry host one by one
and calls forth each of them by name.

Because of his great power and mighty strength,
not one of them is missing.

Matthew 22:36-40

‘Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?’

Jesus replied: ‘ “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.”

This is the first and greatest commandment.

And the second is like it:

“Love your neighbour as yourself.”

All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.’
